TOUCH OF POLITICS IN T. P. A MEETING

Bryan Writes William Hoge He's Sorry Governor Hughes Vetoed Rate Measure.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NOHFOLK, VA., June 18.-National politics were given a ring in Nor folk to-day through the receipt of a letter from Hon, William J. Bryan, of Lincoln, Neb., to William Hoge, of New York, here as a delegate to the convention of the Travelers' Protective Association. The letter is in Mr. Bryan's own chirography. Bearing directly on the interests of the travelers, the letter created much enthusiasm among them. Mr. Bryan

"I am sorry that Govarner Hughes, of New York, veteed the two-cent rate bills. He simply gives the benefit of the doubt to the railroads instead of
to the people and that, too, where the roads were protected by an appeal to the courts, whereas the people have no appeal.

"His veto shows how difficult regulation is when the roads have such an enormous influence in politics.

"But the traveling men ought not to be discouraged; it takes time to secure reforms, but reforms come. The next Governor of New York will not veto a two-cent bill. I am going to urge Congress to pass a law compelling the roads to sell interstate mileage at a price not greater than the sum of the local fares."

The features of the second day's session of the Travelers' Association of America were the reports of W. A. Kirchhoff, of St. Louis, national organizer; John S. Harwood, of Richmond, Va., chairman of the national logislative committee, and F. W. Crandali, of St. Louis, chairman of the national railroad committee.

During the year three new State divisions, sixteen new posts and an ancrease in the membership of 9.985, bringing the total membership up to more than 37,000, were reported. In the report of Chairman Harwood, President Roosevelt was praised for the work he had done in regulating the trusts and for his work affecting railroad legislation.

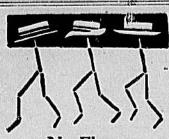

The report of Chairman Crandall, of the railroad committee, referred brieffly to the two-cent railroad passenger rate law, declaring that commercial men are entitled to a rate lower than the general rate prevailing in the section through which they travel, this rate to be regulated locally.

Referring to the great increase in railroad accidents, the report suggests that the remedy is for the railroads to double-track; the establishing of Concerning the alleged rough treatment of the Virginia militiamen of Pine Beach by Norfolk county officers, Governor Swanson said that he would take no action, pending an official report of the affair by General C. C. Vaughan, and it is believe that he will be guided almost wholly in the matter by General Vaughan's recommendations.

Though the Governor did not discuss the subject further, it is understood that he feels the alleged outrage very keenly, and will do whatever he thinks is necessary to have it thoroughly investigated, if it shall develop that the facts are as they now appear.

Governor Swanson is pleased with the progress which is being made at the exposition, and he declares that it is growing better every day and promises to be a wonderful show before it is over.

CURED IN 3 WEEKS BY CUTICURA COSTING $1.50

"After having the measles my whole head and neck were covered with scaly sores about as large as a penny. They were just as thick as they could be. My hair all came out. Het the trouble run along, taking the doctor's blood remedies and rubbing on salve, but it did not seem to got any better. It stayed that way for about six months; then I got a set of the Culicura Remedies, and in about a week I noticed a big difference, and in three weeks it was well entirely and I have not had the trouble any more, and as this was seven years ago. I consider myself cured. I used one bottle of Culicura Resolvent, one box of Culicura Olatment, and two cakes of Cuticura Soap. I think it a splendid medicine, and I recommend it whenever I can. The corporations are fighting Governor Hughes, and they will go on fighting him; but, of course, the more they fight him the stronger he will grow not only in his own State, but throughout the country. A reasonable opinion regarding him seems to be that, while it is premature to declare that he will be nominated, it is not a second too early to predict that if he is nominated by the Republican convention he will be the next President of the United States.—New York Press.

Sensational Report That Negro Convicts Were Barricaded in Cabin Proved Unfounded.

Closing Exercises Held Yesterday At Sacred Heart School-Personals and Briefs.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street.

Information reached police head-quarters yesterday morning to the effect that the three negro convicts, who escaped from the prisoner's camp near Drewry's Bluff on Saturday afternoon, had been located in a deserted cabin in Chesterfield county, about four miles outside of Manchester.

The men were said to be strongly betricaded and armed with Winchester rifles, which they had brought with them from the camp at Drewry's Bluff. Special Officer G. T. Jarrell, of Swansboro, with Officer T. L. Watts, of Oak Grove, after arming themselves for any emergency, made off in the direction of Branch's Memorial Church, near which stood the unoccupied cabin. The officers were accompanied by several citizens, and the whole party, upon nearing their journey's end, deployed about the hut.

No response being made to several commands of "Surrender!" the little party closed in on the cabin and found it entirely unoccupied.

Officer Jarrell said last night that there was no indication that the but had been used as a retreat. The negroes are still at large.

At a meeting of the Board of Aldermen held last night a considerable amount of routine business was transacted and three important ordinances were passed.

An ordinance recommended by the Cometery Committee and adopted by the Board offers a reward of $100 for the apprehension of W. M. Allen, the absconding superintendent of the almshouse and cemetery, and also provides a complete system to be observed in the conduct of the cemetery with reference to the opening of; graves, the laying off of sections and other matters. Another ordinance appropriates $500 to be used in securing new maps of the cemetery and employing a clerk to keep the records.

The Campbell ordinance, providing that chws shall not be allowed to roam at large in the streets of the city, was passed. This ordinance has been adopted already by the lower branch.
